Morse Code and the Telegraph

BY : Everett , kayla, christian and noah

Samuel Morse

Samuel Morse was an american inventor born in charlestown , Boston MA in 1791 and died in 1872 in New York , New york . His invention the telegraph was a big message sender in his time . When we watched our charlie brown

Telegraph and morse code

Morse code was very helpful to the society and helped communicate with one another . The telegraph was developed in 1830-1840's . It worked by sending long distance messages through electrical wires in between where a telegraph is placed . Alfred Vail helped Morse on this wonderful invention.
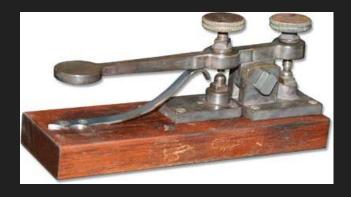

Economic Growth

The telegraph helped the economy of the United states of America by helping send messages throughout the US .
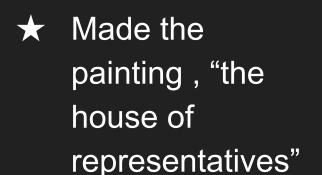

THE WORLD BE DIFFERENT...

The world would be different without the telegraph because this invention helps send messages across the us.

FUN FACTS

" The house of representatives"

★ Made the painting , "the house of representatives"

★ His middle name is finley breese

★ A seventeen year old girl named annie selected the first message

Credits

- History.com
- Tons Of Facts.